TAKE OUR WALKING TOUR

The Union Square Partnership has teamed with Big Onion Walking Tours to create a free 90-minute walking tour of Union Square, Crossroads of New York. The tour explores the social and political history of the neighborhood through discussions of the factors that have shaped this community, while teaching you fun facts about the area as well. Participants first learn from a group tour of Union Square Park and then branch out into neighboring streets. Rain or shine, the tour meets every Saturday at 2:00 PM at the Abraham Lincoln statue along the 16th Street traverse in Union Square Park. Lads for six weddings Crossroads of New York. Reservations are required for groups but not for individuals. For more information, please call 212 516 1826.

VISIT NYC’S LARGEST GREENMARKET

Since 1975, the Union Square Greenmarket has served as a local landmark to the first and largest farmer’s market, located on the plaza surrounding Union Square Park, local farmers, fishers and bakers sell what they grow, raise, catch and bake locally. The Greenmarket supports regional small farm families by providing them with opportunities to sell their products to the public. Many of the restaurants in the Union Square neighborhood “sourced up” here because of the growing of the Greenmarket, and locals reap the benefits. Rain or shine, the Greenmarket is open year-round every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

GRAB SOME HOLIDAY CHEER & GIFTS

The Union Square Holiday Market, operated by Urban Space Management, occurs every weekend from the week before Thanksgiving through Christmas Day on Union Square Park’s South Plaza. The market is located outdoors and provides holiday shoppers with unique gifts and the opportunity to talk to the designers about their products. Come rain or snow, the Union Square Holiday Market is sure to please customers looking for that one-of-a-kind gift for someone on their holiday shopping list.

EXPERIENCE NYC’S DINING MECCA

Union Square is not only good tasting; it’s also delicious! Indeed, Union Square is fortunate to contain itself among New York’s most renowned food districts. Our Greenmarket, gourmet grocers and diverse array of restaurants, eateries and bars make the neighborhood a true mecca for epicureans. With countless options to cater to every taste and budget, from quick light bites and sweet treats, to upscale dining that incorporates the freshest seasonal market produce, Union Square is certainly the City’s “Best Tasting Neighborhood.”

EXPLORE UNION SQUARE PARK

Opened in 1835, Union Square Park has served as a home to countless community events and festivals — from the first Labor Day parade in 1882 to the first Earth Day in 1970 to the current, wildly popular Greenmarket. Union Square Park has inevitably transitioned from a town square into one of the City’s most popular and beloved open spaces. With the addition of free wireless Internet, as well as several playgrounds, dog, and pet-friendly improvements to the North End, Union Square Park has become a great gathering place for visitors and residents alike.

ABOUT UNION SQUARE PARTNERSHIP

The Union Square Partnership is a community-based, nonprofit organization working to foster the best possible metropolitan neighborhood for its residents, businesses, and visitors. We are comprised of a local development corporation and New York City’s first business improvement district, two organizations that have earned as constants behind the area’s transformation.

For the past three decades, the Partnership has worked to ensure the district’s continued growth as a center for business, culture and education by providing a variety of programs, events and services, including public safety, marketing, economic development and marketing support, as well as park beautification.
